

Job Opportunity

Dietitian

Nourish is expanding and I am looking for a dietitian who is willing to come on this journey

Gone are the days of “diabetes is a progressive disease.....”. At Nourish, we are about encouraging and empowering our community so they receive better diabetes care resulting in positive outcomes.

I am looking for a dietitian who is willing to go above and beyond to provide a high quality nutrition service. If you have empathy, enthusiasm and eagerness to help lead the way to make Nourish the best diabetes hub in Adelaide, apply now!

Position

- Accredited Practising Dietitian
- Sub - contractor, with potential for part time employment for the right person

Essential Criteria

- Current membership with Dietitian’s Australia
- An Australian Business Number (ABN)
- Excellent communication skills
- Demonstrated high quality clinical skills
- Commitment to ongoing self-education, particularly regarding diabetes
- An ethos of evidence based care
- Willingness to potentially work afterhours (late evenings, weekends)
- Strong ability to use initiative and confidence to work independently
- Team player
- Valid police clearance, working with children clearance and professional indemnity insurance

Desirable

- Post-graduate training in diabetes or another endocrine related speciality
- Experience using HICAPS and medical software programs
- Good understanding of Medicare and private health policies
- Demonstrated dietetic expertise and leadership in private practice and/or clinical settings

Bonus perks

- 1:1 mentoring and supervision from an experienced dietitian
- Work with other likeminded allied health professionals
- Opportunities to grow within a rapidly expanding multi-disciplinary team
- Nourish is committed to employing people from diverse backgrounds and providing a workplace free from discrimination and harassment

How to apply

- Address your application to rebecca.nourishadl@gmail.com
- Application must include a cover letter (max. one page), which outlines your suitability for the role having reference to the essential and desirable (if applicable) criteria above
- Current, tailored resume (max. two pages) including the name and contact details of your two most recent places of employment
- Applicants must be available to work in Australia and available for immediate start

Please e-mail your cover letter addressing the above criteria and resume to nourish@nourishadl.com.au

Applications are assessed as received